THE STOLEN WEDDING

Sir Charles saves the life of Frederick from the hands of Reno, who desires to be ruler of the pirate crew. While this falls on his own dirk, the Robinson family have now in their power, but remembering a little quotation which reassures him that they are in a position, as they have him in their back and start making the best of it. Sir Charles declares to take the ship to the life boat as a party island in the distance.

Episode 11.....THE STOLEN WEDDING

Sir Charles saves the life of Frederick from the knife of Tonio, who aspires to be leader of the pirate crew. Tonio then falls on his own dirk and the Robinson family have him in their power, but remembering a bible quotation which recommends kindness, they decide to spare him, so they take him to their tent and start nursing him back to health. Sir Charles bargains to take the Robinsons in his life boat to a nearby island in the lane of travel, which will give them a chance of being picked up and taken home. He makes the condition that Emily Montrose, in love with Frederick, become his wife, and gives her until noon the next day to decide.

Captain Robinson tells the distracted lovers that he is a master mariner empowered to perform the marriage ceremony. They decide to be married then and there. The captain is about to pronounce them man and wife when Sir Charles returns with his pirates prematurely and breaks up the wedding, demanding that Emily become his wife.
